COLLEGE DEPARTMENTS.

DEPARTMENT OF INTELLECTUAL AND MORAL PHILOSOPHY, AND ENGLISH LITERATURE.

PRESIDENT A. R. BENTON, A. M.

The course of instruction in Intellectual and Moral Philosophy is indicated by the text books used; and will be accompanied with Essays by the class, and Lectures by the Professor.

In the study of English Literature, the object will be to gain a knowledge of the origin, growth, and laws of our language, and a correct use of its grammatical and idiomatical forms. In connection with this Department, Rhetoric, Logic, English Composition and Elocution will be taught.

DEPARTMENT OF ANCIENT LANGUAGES AND LITERATURE.

PROF. I. N. DEMMON, A. B.

The general scope of this Department will appear from the foregoing Course of Study. The aim will be to lay the foundation of a thorough and critical scholarship in the Greek and Latin Languages. The studies of the Freshman and Sophomore years will be accompanied by lessons in Grecian and Roman History, and particular attention will be paid to the Literatures, Arts, and Antiquities of Greece and Rome. In connection with the studies of the Senior year further lessons in the Histories will be given and a general review of the Grecian Philosophy. Essays will be required of the class on topics connected with the authors read. The object will be to impart not simply a knowledge of grammars, but of authors likewise.

The pronunciation will be after the German method. In Greek, the written accent will be followed in pronouncing, and will be written in all exercises in composition.

BOOKS OF REFERENCE.

Kuehner's Greek Grammar;
Goodwin's Greek Moods and Tenses;
Zumpt's Latin Grammar;
Andrew's and Stoddard's Latin Grammar;
Smith's Dictionary of Antiquities;
Smith's Dictionary of Biography and Mythology;
Anthon's Classical Dictionary;
Smith's Dictionary of Ancient Geography;
Long's Classical Atlas;
Becker's Gallus;
Becker's Charicles;
Felton's Ancient and Modern Greece;
Grote's History of Greece;
Arnold's History of Rome;
Merivale's Histories of Rome.

DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL SCIENCE.

PROF. A. FAIRHURST, A. M.

This Department embraces Natural History, Physics, Botany, Chemistry, Geology and Mineralogy. The Laboratory furnishes special advantages to those who wish to experiment in Chemistry, or to take a Course in Analytical Chemistry.

The Cabinet of Geology and Mineralogy is well furnished with specimens.

Apparatus will be used to illustrate the principles in Physics. It will be the aim in this Department to make the student in the various branches of this Department illustrate for himself, as far as possible, the principles found in his text books.

DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS.

PROF. C. BANCROFT, A. B.

The studies of this Department are Algebra, Geometry, Trigonometry, Plane and Spherical, Surveying, Analytical Geometry, Calculus, and Astronomy.

Attention will be given to the practical application of the branches taught in this Department.

DEPARTMENT OF ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY.

PROF. R. P. JOHNSON. M. D.

In view of the importance of the laws of health and proper physical culture, as well as to furnish a basis for the proper study of Man in his higher nature and relations, it has been determined to bestow unusual care and skill in this Department. Prof. JOHNSON will accompany his lectures with such demonstrations as will afford students an opportunity for a complete understanding of Anatomical and Physiological Science.

This Department is furnished with a fine French manikin of Auzouxes' manufacture, an imported skeleton, and a fine set of French charts.

The Professor will, during the Winter Term, dissect a subject, whenever a class of sufficient number desire it.

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH STUDIES.

MISS LOTTIE M. SACKETT, LADY PRINCIPAL.

The studies belonging to this Department are, English Grammar and Analysis, Arithmetic, Descriptive Geography, Physical Geography, Reading and Spelling. Students will be required to pass a satisfactory examination in these studies before admission to the Scientific Course.

DEPARTMENT OF VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC.

MISS E. MEHARD, TEACHER.

This Department, including Instrumental and Vocal Music, will be under the direction of Miss Mehard. Her established reputation as a successful instructor in this art, warrants us in assuring the patrons of the College, that the most accurate and thorough instruction will be given in this Department.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

M. HAZZARD, PRINCIPAL.

This Department will be under the direction of Prof. Hazzard, who, having served as a Practical Accountant in both Manufacturing and Mercantile Houses, as well as having an established reputation as teacher in one of the best Business Colleges of America, is particularly well qualified for teaching the Science of Accounts and imparting a knowledge of business customs and the laws governing business transactions.

The Studies belonging to this Department are BOOK-KEEPING, PENMANSHIP, COMMERCIAL LAW, COMMERCIAL CALCULATIONS, COMMERCIAL PAPER, BUSINESS FORMS, CORRESPONDENCE AND PHONOGRAPHY.

The Business Course includes Book-keeping by single and double entry as applied to General Mercantile and Manufacturing Business, Banking, Brokerage, Commission, Forwarding, Jobbing and Importing, Rail-Roading, Steamboating, Farm and Administrator's Accounts, changing from single to double entry, Practice in Business Penmanship and Correspondence, short and easy Methods of Calculation, a Knowledge of the Laws governing Business Transactions, and the relations, rights, privileges, duties and obligations of persons affected by the use of commercial paper in business transactions.

THE BUSINESS APARTMENT in the College is fitted up with elegant Bank, Post Office, Rail Road, Steamboat, Commission and Forwarding, Jobbing and Importing, Real Estate and Express Offices, and is not surpassed for convenience.

In connection with his practice in Book-keeping on Proprietor's Partnership and Stock Company book, the student is required to write up for rigid inspection and use Notes, Drafts, Checks, Bills of Exchange, Orders, Receipts, Due Bills, Account Sales, Accounts Current and Bills; and thus, with the use of College Currency and the various blanks used, he becomes acquainted with all the details of business.

PHONOGRAPHY.—Besides the Business Course, a rare opportunity of acquiring a thorough and practical knowledge of this useful, fascinating and much coveted Art is afforded those who wish to pursue it, either alone or in connection with other studies. "Had Phonography been known forty years ago, it would have saved me twenty years of hard labor."—Thos. H. Benton.

TIME, &c.—The time required to complete the Business Course varies with the capacity of the student from three to six months. And as the student receives personal assistance at all hours as well as class instruction, he will not be inconvenienced or retarded by entering any time during the College Year, and may pursue this course in connection with other studies, or alone.

For Terms see TUITION.

For further information address,

M. HAZZARD, Alliance, Ohio.

BIBLICAL DEPARTMENT.

For the benefit of young men preparing for the Ministry, a class will be taught, the object of which will be to present the Evidences of Christianity, the Principles of Interpretation, and to give a critical examination to portions of the Sacred Scriptures.

FRENCH, GERMAN, AND HEBREW.

French, German, and Hebrew will be taught without additional charge, to the students of the College.

NORMAL INSTRUCTION.

This course of instruction is designed to embrace the Theory and Practice of Teaching, especially, with reference to the wants of common schools.

ADMISSION.

Applicants for admission to Alliance College will be required—

1. To furnish satisfactory evidence of good moral character; and such as come from other Institutions of learning must bring testimonials of honorable dismissal therefrom.

2. To promise faithful observance to all the Rules and Regulations of the College.

3. To present the Treasurer's receipt for the term.

EXAMINATIONS.

At the close of each term there will be a Public Examination of the College classes, and every student is required to be present at the examination of his class. None but the most urgent reasons will be allowed to interfere with this arrangement.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

There are organized in connection with the College, two Literary Societies, the Irving Lyceum, and the Palladian Societies. Also, the Timothean Society, designed for the religious improvement of its members by means of Sermons, Religious Discussions, and Essays.

LIBRARY AND READING ROOM.

During the year valuable additions have been made to the Library of well selected books especially adapted to the wants of students. In connection with the Library there is a Reading Room, furnished with the best current newspaper literature.

MERIT ROLL.

A daily record is kept of the attendance and proficiency of each student, and a report of the same is made by the Faculty at the close of each term to the Parent or Guardian.

DEGREES.

The degree of Bachelor of Arts will be conferred on those who satisfactorily complete the Classical course of study.

Those satisfactorily completing the Scientific course will receive the Degree of Bachelor of Sciences.

Graduates in the regular course, who have followed some Profession, or devoted themselves to Literary or Scientific pusuits for three years, are entitled to the Degree of Master of Arts.

GOVERNMENT.

The Discipline of the College is designed to be mild but firm, at once preventive and corrective. No student can be allowed to remain at College who habitually neglects his studies or violates the rules of good order or morality. When unexcused delinquencies amount to five, notice will be given to the student, and to the Parent or Guardian; and when to ten the penalty of dismission will be incurred.

ELECTIVE STUDIES.

Students, not regularly in the Classical or Scientific Course of Study, may with the advice of the Faculty select from these courses such studies as they may by previous training be prepared to pursue; but in all cases they are advised to take one of the courses regularly. Each student is required to have at least three studies, unless, by special permission of the Faculty, he is allowed to take a less number.

APPARATUS AND CABINET.

The Apparatus, especially in the Department of Chemistry, is very complete, affording special facilities for Analysis, and necessary experiments in the illustration of the subject.

The Cabinet is well supplied with specimens of Minerals and Fossils, affording ample means of illustration in the study of Mineralogy and Geology.

RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION.

Every student is required to attend the daily worship in the College Chapel; also, some place of worship on the Lord's day, and the Lectures on Lord's day in the College Chapel.

BOARDING.

The Boarding Hall is arranged with large and commodious rooms, and furnished with every convenience to make a pleasant home for students. It is under the supervision of the Lady Principal, who will give special attention to the wants and welfare of the ladies boarding at the Hall. Boarding and a nicely furnished room can be had at $4.00 to $5.00 per week.

Good boarding can also be obtained in private families at reasonable rates. By renting rooms, boarding can be reduced considerably below these rates, to $2.00 or $3.00 per week, including all boarding expenses.
